

Private Cooking Event

At The Cooking Studio we are dedicated to provide a fun and engaging culinary event for you and your guests.

Overview

Private events take place in our teaching kitchens in the Opera Galleria, Old Town Fort Collins. Classes are designed to include everyone and everyone cooks and eats no matter their age and capability. Our mission to provide an encouraging environment for anyone who wants to improve their cooking skills. We can accommodate up to 26 guests per class and you should plan on it taking approximately 3 hours.

What's included:

- ✓ Recipe packets with space for individual note taking
- ✓ Chef instruction on recipes, culinary skills, and cooking techniques
- ✓ All cooking tools, appliances, spices and foods
- ✓ Everyone eats the meal prepared
- ✓ Wine and Beer can be served and is paid for at the time of service. Please let us know when registering if you want to have wine and beer available

Customization options:

Special requests for a type of cuisine or specific dish are always welcome.

We can work from a theme if you have something specific in mind (ie: cook the book for book clubs, cook the world for international clubs, etc.)

You are welcome to bring any decorations you'd like. We keep only items needed for cooking, teaching and eating.

We can organize a set of classes (ie: basic skills, baking) if you'd like to create your own series of cooking classes.

Important Notes:

Classes run for 3 hours, please allot adequate time for guests to come into Old Town and park in the garage attached to The Galleria.
